FUNDS OF THE FOUNDATION

Donors establish funds at East Tennessee Foundation to serve a wide variety of charitable purposes. These funds are managed separately for accounting, grantmaking, and reporting purposes; however, fund assets are commingled in investments to achieve economies of scale and wide diversification. In 2009, the Foundation held 345 funds.

UNRESTRICTED FUNDS

Unrestricted Funds are "opportunity" funds, allowing the Foundation board and staff to make strategic grants when an opportunity arises. Most Foundation funds are restricted to a particular county, cause, or nonprofit. Unrestricted funds allow the Foundation to support worthwhile requests when an initiative, special need, or community project is identified.
The following is a listing of all Unrestricted Funds during 2009:

Paul O. Dore, Jr., and Betty B. Dore Unrestricted Fund

FIELD-OF-INTEREST FUNDS

Field-of-Interest Funds support a competitive grantmaking process in broad charitable areas such as arts and culture, community development, women and children, education or youth-at-risk. These funds allow the Foundation flexibility in serving a particular need that matches donors' interest.

The Foundation’s existing affiliate funds range in scope from asset-building or grantmaking programs to full-service, county community foundations. With local advisory boards and a local presence, affiliate funds may engage in independent endowment building, fundraising activities, grantmaking, and other types of activities to promote local philanthropic giving and community building.

DONOR ADVISED FUNDS

Donor Advised Funds offer donors the most flexibility and involvement in their giving by permitting them to make recommendations for grants to qualified nonprofit organizations. Many donors choose a donor advised fund over a family foundation because of the administrative ease and lower cost. Donor advisors enjoy the opportunity to teach philanthropy to their children, both by example and by involving the family in grantmaking. Donor advisors also benefit from the Foundation staff’s knowledge of the needs and opportunities for giving in East Tennessee.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS AND GIFT ANNUITIES

Charitable Remainder Trusts provide an income for the donor or a family member while providing an up-front tax deduction for the remainder that will be left to the Foundation. Charitable Lead Trusts provide an immediate gift to the Foundation for a period of years with the remainder going back to the donor or family members. Trusts are drawn up by donors' attorneys, but Foundation staff can assist in determining tax savings and the amount of income available to donors. As with other types of gifts, trust assets can establish any type of fund within the Foundation and can be used to benefit the causes that most touch the donor's heart.

The primary way East Tennessee Foundation fulfills its mission is through its grantmaking programs. Grants are made on both a competitive and noncompetitive basis, depending on the type of funds from which the grants are made. Competitive grant awards are made to organizations in response to broadly disseminated guidelines and requests for proposals and are awarded according to objective criteria by an experienced grants panel of individuals. Competitive scholarship awards are made to individuals who are deemed the most qualified by scholarship selection committees according to each program’s guidelines and application. Noncompetitive grants are made from organization endowment funds or in response to recommendations from fund donor advisors, the Board of Directors, or staff. Grants from the Foundation’s supporting organizations are made according to each organization’s established policies and criteria for grantmaking. In 2009, the Foundation and its supporting organizations awarded $9,632,530 in grants or scholarships to nonprofit organizations, primarily in the 25-county region.
